Course Description:

This course covers basic identification of drugs commonly seen in Montana; on the streets and in a correctional setting. Drugs that are commonly encountered in a correctional setting, and the packages that they are likely to be hidden in, will be onsite for viewing. Behavioral symptoms of drug use will also be discussed. Pharmaceutical drug addiction will also be discussed because it is the number one drug problem that law enforcement officers are dealing with in Montana (and the nation) at this time. Methamphetamine labs and usage will be discussed if time allows. Drug trends change from year to year, so it is important to stay informed on current trends that affect the Correctional Field.

Who Should Attend:

Anyone working in areas that offenders have access to. This class is especially important for staff that are responsible for closed/unclosed body searches, housing area/common area searches, and inmate work area searches. Preference will be given to staff members with these job duties

There is no registration fee & the Class is POST
Certified!
